IRB 201 will provide the knowledge needed to become experienced IRB chairs, members, and staff. This educational program will include information directly relevant to IRB chairs, members, and staff who conduct reviews as part of a convened IRB or through the expedited procedure. This course has been designed for IRB members and staff who understand the fundamentals of IRB operations and who are now interested in obtaining the next level of training. By attending IRB 201, participants will gain the knowledge and skills needed both to serve as effective IRB reviewers and to teach others to become effective IRB reviewers. Note that this course will not cover administrative issues.
