Resolution from the PRIM&R Board of Directors to Emogene deMaagd, BS

Whereas Ms. deMaagd retired after a long and distinguished career at the University of Cincinnati; and

Whereas Ms. deMaagd was was the Applied Research Ethics National Association’s (ARENA) ninth president in 1994; and

Whereas Ms. deMaagd successfully led ARENA through a challenging financial time in 1994; and

Whereas during Ms. deMaagd’s presidency, a task force was established to develop a strategic plan that would foster the future growth and development of ARENA based on data and experiences from ARENA’s first 10 years of successful membership activities; and

Whereas Ms. deMaagd served as both vice president and regional council member of ARENA in 1993; and

Whereas Ms. deMaagd shared memories of her ARENA service by submitting the following note…“ARENA is described as a national service organization of professionals associated with research whose function is to promote educational activities, networking, the resolution and/or amelioration of mutual problems, and the professional advancement of its members. To that I would like to add, “They are also an organization of caring people who will go the extra mile to see that their colleagues succeed;”

Therefore be it resolved that the PRIM&R Board of Directors, staff, and the wider PRIM&R community, on this third day of December, 2011, do hereby convey their heartfelt appreciation and boundless gratitude to Ms. deMaagd for her long, loyal, and distinguished service to both ARENA and PRIM&R.
