Resolution from the PRIM&R Board of Directors to Beth Ribbeck, MS, MBA

Whereas Ms. Ribbeck was a longtime and highly valued employee of first Duke University and then at the Carolinas Medical Center; and

Whereas Ms. Ribbeck was a noted author in highly respected medical journals writing about injury surveillance, the respiratory effects of spinal mobilization in children, and muscle injuries; and

Whereas Ms. Ribbeck served on a SCAW Advisory Committee on IACUC activities in the United States; and

Whereas Ms. Ribbeck was the Applied Research Ethics National Association’s (ARENA) tenth president in 1995; and

Whereas Ms. Ribbeck oversaw membership growth from 430 to 637 members in 1995, a 48% increase from the previous year; and

Whereas Ms. Ribbeck oversaw the development of a five-year strategic plan to address the future of the organization;

Therefore be it resolved that the PRIM&R Board of Directors, staff, and the wider PRIM&R community, on this third day of December, 2011, do hereby convey their heartfelt appreciation and boundless gratitude to Ms. Ribbeck for her long, loyal, and distinguished service to both ARENA and PRIM&R.
