Problem Statement

Please provide a statement on the background conditions that spurred your research and/or the implementation of the program or practice you developed. A description of the intended outcome/hypothesis must also be included here.*

Description of Research

This section should provide a thorough description of the program developed or research conducted. Descriptions of research projects should include an explanation of research methods, results of the study, limitations to the study, and next steps. Poster abstracts describing novel practices or programs should include a detailed description of how the program was evaluated, suggestions for future use at your institution, and suggestions for implementation at other sites.*

Additional Information

Please use the field below to share any additional information that might be helpful to the Conference Planning Committee when reviewing your submissions (e.g., examples, pertinence to the conference audience, etc.)

Decisions will be sent to poster authors by November 30, 2017. The 2018 IACUC Conference will be held March 20-21, 2017 in Columbus, OH.

If a poster is accepted, one author or co-author must attend the 2018 IACUC Conference to present the poster. PRIM&R is unable to waive conference registration fees or pay travel expenses for poster authors.

Please note poster authors must organize and pay for all shipping arrangements for their poster materials.

Accepted posters will be featured on PRIM&R's website, and may be used for other promotional purposes. Poster authors acknowledge that PRIM&R bears no further obligation to obtain permission for the purposes indicated, and grant this release voluntarily and with no compensation or inducement.
